Will require confirmation from a suitably authorised person of the amount of the excess on the property damage insurance for the Apartment Block and confirmation that but for the application of said excess the loss would have been covered.

We reserve the right to take the benefit of your rights against another person or party before or after we have paid a claim.

Policy Conditions

These conditions apply to all Sections of this Policy.

In the following conditions you also includes any other person insured under the Policy.

1. Protection of Property and Prevention of Accident

You will take all reasonable steps to protect the property and prevent accidents or legal disputes.

2. Fraudulent Claims

If a claim contains information that is false or misleading in any material respect and you either know that it is false or misleading or consciously disregard whether it is false or misleading, or a claim is otherwise fraudulent in any respect, ("Fraudulent Claim"), we shall be entitled to:

- refuse to pay the claim; and
- terminate the Policy by written notice in which case cover under the Policy shall be treated as having terminated with effect from the date on which the Fraudulent Claim was submitted.

In such circumstances of termination we shall refuse all liability to you under the Policy in respect of any claim made after the date of submission of the Fraudulent Claim (but not in respect of any claim(s) made before submission of the Fraudulent Claim) and we need not return any of the premiums paid under the Policy.

3. Cancellation

(a) We have the right to cancel the Policy or any section or part of it by giving 14 days notice in writing by registered letter to your last known address and return to you the amount of premium in respect of the unexpired period of insurance.

(b) You have the right to cancel the Policy or any section or part of it by giving us notice in writing. We will return to you the amount of premium in respect of the unexpired period of insurance less any applicable administration charge. However, no return of premium will be allowed if you have made a claim during the current period of insurance. No administration charge will be applied if you give notice in writing of your intention to cancel the Policy within 14 working days from the date the Policy is concluded (the "Cooling-Off Period"). If you cancel the Policy during the first period of insurance, outside of the Cooling-Off Period, we will deduct an administration charge from any return premium.

4. Arbitration

If there is a dispute arising out of this Policy, the dispute will be referred to an arbitrator. The arbitrator will be appointed jointly by you and us in accordance with the law at the time. Claims not referred to arbitration within 12 calendar months from the date of disclaimer of liability shall be deemed to have been abandoned.

5. Liability Following Death

If you die we will insure your legal personal representatives for any liability you had previously incurred under the Policy provided they keep to the terms of the Policy.

6. Change in Circumstances

You must tell us immediately of any changes to:

- Change of name, address or occupation
- Change to the use or occupancy of the insured premises
- Changes or additions to the structure of the insured property (e.g. the use of any non-standard building materials or deterioration of the condition of the property) or any plans to make changes to the insured property
- Any claim or losses, whether insured or not, made in connection with any other properties owned or occupied by you
- If there are any criminal offences that you or others residing with you have been cautioned for, convicted of, or charged but not yet tried for
- Any changes to:
 - i) the information provided and recorded in any Statement of Fact issued to you; and/or
 - ii) the information provided in any Proposal Form or otherwise in response to specific questions asked by us; and/or
 - iii) the declarations made by or on behalf of you; and/or
 - iv) any additional information voluntarily provided.

When you notify us about a change as above, or if you otherwise become aware of any such change, as referenced above, we may reassess the premium chargeable and Policy cover more generally.

We may refuse a claim made by you where there has been a change in the subject matter of the Policy which results in a new risk which we did not agree to cover and which was beyond the reasonable contemplation of us and you when the Policy was entered into. Failure to disclose any such change may result in difficulty obtaining insurance in the future

7. Claims

Upon learning of any circumstances which may give rise to a claim you must:

- tell us as soon as reasonably possible but immediately if there is riot damage,
- give us all the help and information that we may reasonably require,
- immediately tell the Police if loss or damage is caused by stealing, attempted stealing, malicious people, vandals, riot, civil, labour or political disturbance, immediately send to us any writ or summons or other communication you receive,
- give full details within 30 days of the incident together with any supporting evidence that we require.

8. Credit Cards

You must report the loss of any credit card to the issuing company and to the Police within 24 hours of discovery.

11. Negotiation or Settlement of Claims

You must not admit, deny, negotiate or settle a claim or dispute without our written consent.

12. Subrogation

Subject to Condition 22 below we are entitled to:

- take the benefit of your rights against another person before or after we have paid a claim,
- take over the defence or settlement of a claim against you by another person.

13. Other Insurances

If at the time of a claim there is any other policy covering anything insured by this Policy we will be liable only for our proportionate share.

14. Excess

Where any single event, being a single incident or transaction or a series of incidents or transactions linked by cause or time, results in a claim under more than one section of the Policy, the highest excess only will apply.

15. Insurance Act 1936

All monies which become payable by us under this Policy shall in accordance with Section 93 of the Insurance Act 1936 be payable and paid in the Republic of Ireland.

16. Instalments Defaults

Where we have agreed to accept payment by instalments, any default in payment on the due date may result in the Policy cover being terminated.

17. Stamp Duties Consolidation Act 1999

The appropriate Stamp Duty has been or will be paid in accordance with the provisions of Stamp Duties Consolidation Act, 1999.

18. Premium Alterations

If an alteration to the policy results in an additional premium due to the Insurer or a refund premium due to the Insured, we will only charge or refund such premiums provided the amount involved is greater than or equal to €20.

19. Inflation Protection.

We will from time to time adjust the sums insured in line with changes to relevant indices and claims inflation. Any proposed changes to your sums insured will be applied monthly and updated annually at renewal when the revised sums insured will be clearly noted on your renewal notice. You should regularly review your sums insured to satisfy yourself that they meet your requirements. We reserve the right to insist on a reasonable minimum sum insured. We will not charge extra premium during the period of insurance but at the end of the period we will calculate the renewal premium on the revised sums insured.

20.

(1) Pre-contractual Representations

You acknowledge and accept the following:

- you have a legal duty prior to entering into this Policy and/or prior to the renewal of this Policy to provide responses to questions asked by us in relation to the risk(s) to be insured.
- a matter about which we ask a specific question is material to the risk undertaken by us or the calculation of the premium by us, or both.
- you have a legal duty to answer all questions asked by us honestly and with reasonable care.
- while we acknowledge that you have no legal duty of voluntary disclosure, you shall ensure that information which is voluntarily provided by you or on your behalf is provided honestly and with reasonable care.

(2) Remedies for Misrepresentation

- The term "negligent misrepresentation" means a representation made without reasonable care but which was not fraudulent. Where a claim is made under the Policy but an answer which was provided, or information which was volunteered, by you or on your behalf involves a negligent misrepresentation, the remedy available to us shall reflect what we would have done had we been aware of the full facts and shall be based on a compensatory and proportionate test, as follows:
 - if we would not have entered into the Policy on any terms, we may avoid the Policy from inception or renewal (as the case may be) and refuse all claims, but shall return the premium paid;
 - if we would have entered into the Policy, but on different terms, the Policy is to be treated as if it had been entered into on those different terms if we so require;
 - if we would have entered into the Policy, but would have charged a higher premium, we may reduce proportionately the amount to be paid on the relevant claim.
- Where an answer which was provided, or information which was volunteered, involves a negligent misrepresentation which is identified at a time prior to there being any claim under the Policy, we may either:
 - give notice to you that in the event of a claim we will exercise the remedies in paragraphs (a)(i)-(iii) above as appropriate; and/or terminate the Policy by giving reasonable notice. Where a claim is made under the Policy but an answer which was provided, or information which was volunteered, by you or on your behalf involves a fraudulent misrepresentation, or where any conduct by you or on your behalf (relative to the Policy or the steps leading to its formation) involves fraud of any other kind, we shall be entitled to avoid the Policy from the date of commencement or renewal (as the case may be) without return of premium.

21. Effect of Continuing Restrictive Conditions

In this Policy, any term that imposes a Continuing Restrictive Condition, including one that is intended to reduce the risk of a particular type of loss, or reduce the risk of loss occurring at a particular time or in a particular location, shall be treated as a suspensive condition. This means that if:

- (a) you breach any such term; and
- (b) during the period of breach you suffer a relevant loss; and
- (c) such breach increased, in the circumstances concerned, the risk of the loss suffered by you, we will have no liability for the loss.

A Continuing Restrictive Condition is any condition in this Policy, however expressed, that purports to require you to do, or not to do, a particular act or acts, or requires you to act, or not to act, in a particular manner (and any condition the effect of which is that a given set of circumstances is required to exist or to be maintained or not to exist shall be taken as falling within this definition).

22. Subrogation Limits

For the purposes of this condition only, the expression "insured person" shall mean you and any other person entitled to be indemnified under this Policy.

This clause applies where we have the right to be subrogated to the insured person's rights against some other person but the insured person has not exercised those rights and might reasonably be expected not to exercise those rights because the insured person and the other person are members of the same family (to be construed in accordance with the Employment Equality Act 1998), or are cohabitants (to be construed in accordance with the Civil Partnership and Certain Rights and Obligations of Cohabitants Act 2010).

Where in the above circumstances the other person is not insured in respect of their liability to the insured person, we do not have the right to be subrogated to the insured person's rights against that other person. Where the other person is so insured, we may not recover from the other person an amount greater than the amount that that person may recover under their insurance policy.

This clause does not apply where the conduct of the other person that gave rise to the loss involved serious or wilful misconduct.

If the Insured Person is an employer, we will not exercise our right of subrogation against an employee except where the loss was caused by an employee intentionally or recklessly and with knowledge that the loss would probably result.

This endorsement also excludes loss, damage, liability, cost or expense of whatsoever nature directly or indirectly caused by, resulting from or in connection with any action taken in controlling, preventing, suppressing or in anyway relating to any act of terrorism.
